

Getting a jump on spring

Chilly start: Spring has sprung a little early for these dorper lambs on Rangitikei Line, near Palmerston North. The breed comes from crossing dorset horn and the blackhead persian sheep. There are a few lambs out on the flatter land, but hill country farmers are still six weeks away from lambing.

Photo: WARWICK SMITH/FAIRFAX NZ